SUMMER BIBLE STUDY

for Adults and Teens

The Prophetic Imagination of Israel

Join us for another engaging and stimulating summer bible study with Dr. Bill Shaules. Bill is a New Testament Scholar who teaches at Fuller Theological Seminary, St. Johns Seminary and works for the Los Angeles Archdiocese. This study is open for everyone - coffee and donuts will be served.

Description: Israel's prophetic voice reflects her historical circumstances and continues to have impact beyond the lifetime of the prophet. With these two ideas as guiding principles, students will explore the prophetic voices of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel and selected "minor prophets."

Classes:

July 4: Not Meeting.

July 11: History and Imaginative Traditioning

July 18: The Assyrian Period: First Isaiah

July 25: The Babylonian/Persian Period: Second Isaiah and Jeremiah

August 1: The Babylonian/Persian Period: Third Isaiah and Ezekiel

August 8: The Minor Prophets: Amos, Habakkuk, Malachi

August 15: The Traditioning of Prophetic Literature In Early Christianity
